Lyle, my love —

I still don't think that is very funny. Well, what do you say to a person whom you've only met a few months ago, but some — Two roads diverged in a wood, and I — one who has played such a tremendous role both in my sex life (?), emotions, in my career in my life! Shoot, I don't know what to say. What are we up to now? 22? And well... just "The Road Not Taken" Robert Frost

I took the one less traveled by

And that has made all the difference.

You had better collect before I leave. Leave... Lyle!!!! Oh god I don't want to leave. Remember 14 Stalwart drive Newark, Del. 19711. I Sherwood Forest, I letter every 2 weeks. expect at least. What do I say to you? I love What do I you? I'll miss you? I read you? Lyle, you were a strong influence o me. How? Making me see people in a different light particularly Jim. You're just the one that's helping me to forget him. Will you ever forget all of the things we did together? Holes in one, indeed! Pool! Swimming. You even let me drag you into Drama and let them put you to work. That night at the Academy Awards when I said "I loo you" I meant it, and you know how I meant it, too! You make up for Bob, Kevin & Mike. You don't make up for Peter. There is so much to say and so few days to say it in. I really think you know how I feel about you and we've had together. REMEMBER Me!

Love always, April

P.S. It's 2a

Lyle, I've known you for a long time with out really knowing you. It seems we've followed out a visit in a very strange and we have a good summer friendship. Let's have a good summer this year, our last!! Love, April

Lyle,
You a really neat guy in my history class. Take it easy this summer, and I'll see you next year.

Love ya,
Janet Patiaud

Lyle,
Good luck to you and Diane this summer and above all, have fun. As Mr. L would say: "don't do anything I don't do," or in other words, do anything and everything. See you next year and maybe this summer.
Henry

Lyle,
It's nice having you as a friend and i hope to be a friend in years to come
David Standley

Lyle,
I'm glad that I have you as a good friend and I want a good friend and I hope to have a great summer and I'll see you next school year.

Lyle,

Well, I'm here to fulfill my reservation. I must say, it was very thoughtful of you to say that this whole page could be mine.

This year has been more than full of experiences, to say the least. And you have unselfishly helped me through some of the more difficult ones. I've tried to return the help and caring you've shown me, yet I feel I'll forever be in your debt. Don't argue!!!

Our junior year has been a long year, and yet a short year. And now it's almost over. (You should have seen the look on my mother's face when I mentioned I'd be a senior in less than a week!) Yearbooks are being passed around, and I do my best to say what I feel, yet now I'm at a loss for words. (Got a dictionary?) I hope you know what I feel for I don't know how to say it.

Right now, I'd better warn you that you're going to have to take better care of yourself next year. No playing football in P.E. when you're not supposed to, etc. I can't stand my big brother getting hurt.

You're gentle and kind, and you have a capacity for caring that is getting rarer and rarer these days. You have intelligence, and the wisdom to know when to mix them all for the proper combinations.

Well, there's one year left. One year of fun. One year of unmade memories. A year of laughter, and a year of tears. A year for love, and for hate. The year we graduate.

Well, we're almost seniors now. Did you ever notice how nice a word "senior" is? It's sort of like "win" to a loser.

Thanks for your part in the memories, the joys, the sorrows, the love.

Thanks for being my friend and my brother.

Thanks for being there when I needed you.

Thanks for being you.

Love always,

Pam Pommer

Slave Day

Slave Day '73 marked the beginning of the class of '77's first year at Hueneme high. On September 14, the lowly frosh were sold to the mighty upperclassmen on what proved to be an adventurous slave day. Many of the sights included freshmen hiding behind trash cans and ducking into bushes. But the frosh showed that they had the spirit!

So, Where's my tricycle?

"Like I said, I'm not Suzy Homemaker!"

It's just some "Good old fashioned horseplay."

This is what freshmen do in their spare time.

Sadie Hawkins

Marry'in Sam (Harold Williams) and Help'in Hilda (Jan Evans) hitch another couple.

October 27 was the night the Viking gym was transformed into a barn. At 8:00 the girls nabbed their guys for a night of dancing to the "Enchanting Souls." All decked out in their Sunday duds, they involved themselves in such activities as bobb'in for apples, carving their names into wood, fishing for souvenirs and getting hitched by Marry'in Sam and Help'in Hilda.

OH NO! She's looking this way!

Now where's my date?

Splendor In the Grass

Remember? We went to this together too?

"Though nothing can bring back the hour of splendour in the grass of glory in the flower; we will grieve not, rather find strength in what remains behind."

Presented March 21, 22, 23, 1974, at Oxnard Auditorium.

I married Angelina after I left Yale.

Down on your knees, slave woman.

Hay viene bonita Juanita.

She's wild and boy crazy. I sure am!

That's all I'm asking you, son.

"Seven Year Itch"

She wouldn't . . .

"I always thought Richard was not quite sane."

Would she?

The Meyerheim Case

"Now April... quit trying to decide the best way to kill Peter."

Drama's final production this year was the romantic comedy, SEVEN YEAR ITCH. This play was the first of its kind, having been done in the round — the audience sits completely around the stage. A newcomer to the drama department was Mr. Varre Cummins, who added new dimensions to SEVEN YEAR ITCH.

Producer — Debbie Batts
Director — Celia Davis

Good! She didn't.

LAZY DAYS AT HUENEME

Such poise, such beauty!

Seniors get burned at homecoming!

Look! It's a bird, is it a plane?

Am I supposed to laugh at that?

Keeping the grass warm.

Senior Class Of '74

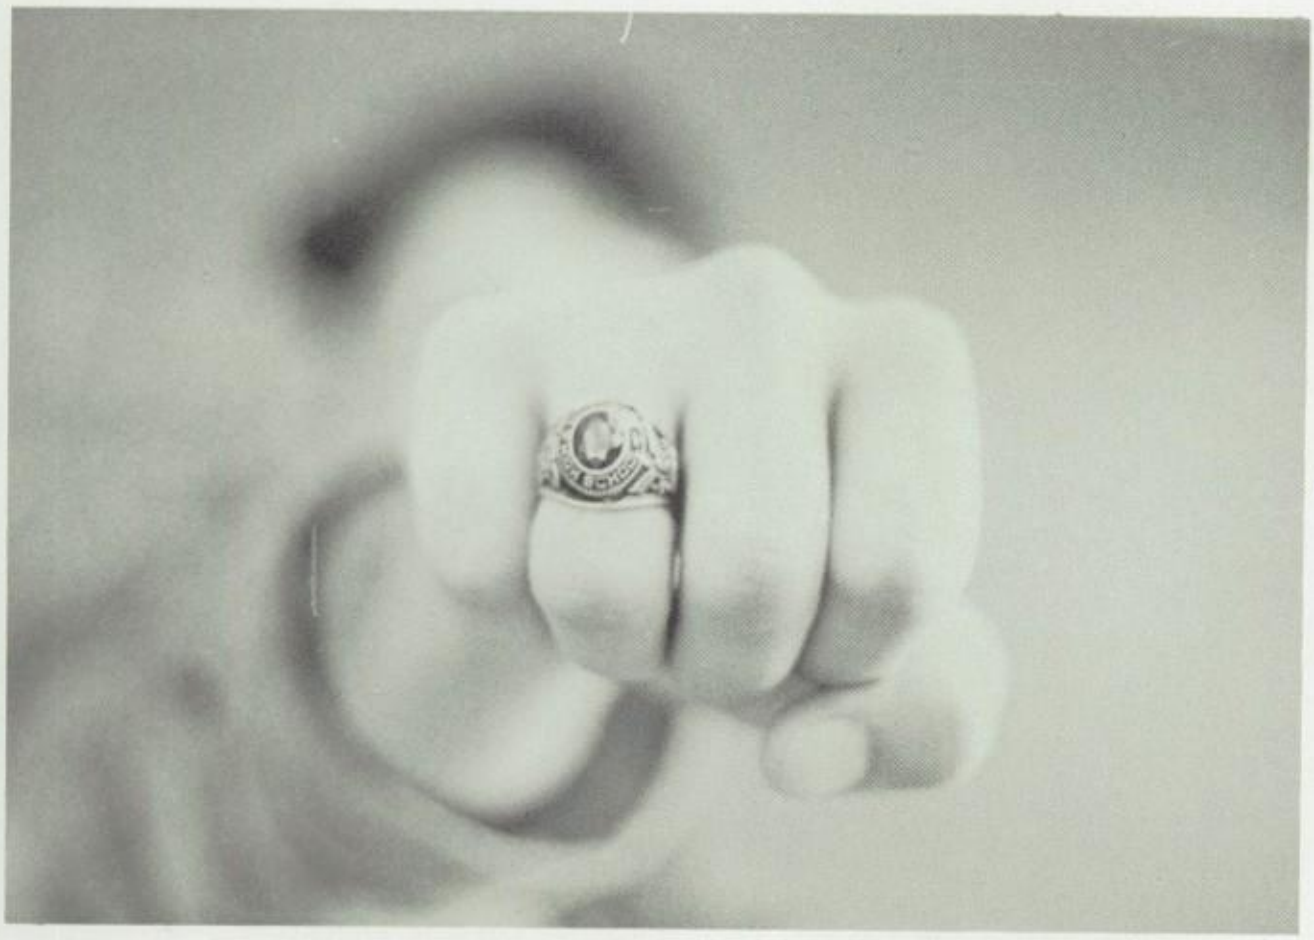
This year we decided not to choose one person to dedicate the yearbook to. Instead we chose nearly 600, the senior class of 1974. We've grown from scared freshmen just entering the world of high school to proud seniors about to enter the adult world. We've gone through endless term papers and countless homework assignments but I'm sure we all came up the better for it. I'm sure we'll long remember our days as surfs, school dances, noon rallies, spirited games and that special day — Graduation.

It took a lot to get where we are but it will take a lot more to get where we want to be, so with this dedication we say Congratulations and Good Luck into lifes voyage.



What a hand
What a ring
What a head
What an arm
What a FOX
that's Howard

We would also like to add a note of sorrow. For some the voyage is over before it has begun — In memory of Donald Kazimis and Sandy Frescas.

Dedication Leads to Championship

Unity, togetherness, teamwork, pride, desire and sacrifice are the qualities needed to be successful in the game of football. Football is a struggle that must be fiercely fought. It is a struggle for the hearts, for the souls, and for the minds of all who compete in it. It is a struggle which tests all of a player's courage, pride, stamina, and strength. Unless players are physically, mentally, and spiritually ready, they will not be successful in this struggle. The 1973 Freshman Football team possessed all of these qualities and passed all these test, as evidenced in their ability to perform under pressure, their ability to record five shutouts in the nine games they played, and their ability to win the OUHS District Frosh Football Championship with an 8 — 1 record, the best ever compiled by an HHS Freshman team.

Reserved

Lyle, I don't know if this is the place you reserved for me but good enough. What can I say? I haven't known you very long but I feel as though I've known you forever. (You're really terrific. I absolutely loved our Sunday night/Monday morning wasn't it good!) and our early morning swims. Even your 6:30 phone calls. You still have a year to go, Lyle. Make the best of it, just as I have this year.
Because when it's all over. That's it! You can't turn back the clock and start again although there are a great many people who would like to. It may seem like it but I'm not one of them. I don't think you are either.
You're a strong person. someone to put hopes in, and I know you won't let anyone down. You have something a lot of people are lacking.
You have determination, drive, ambition, initiative and everything else for the makings of a successful person. I know you will be, too. I know this might not be what you want to hear or it may not even be the truth, but I felt that when you and Diane broke up that you and and April would get together, more than just as friendship. Don't get me wrong!!! I like Diane. It's just that I love April too! And she needs someone like you. You've given her an awful lot, believe it or not. just by being there. I think she's given you something to. Her friendship is an answer to anyone's prayer.
Just as yours is. I like you both. Do something for me, Lyle. Be always. I had 1 hope in life, one goal. That goal is to be someone. That goal is gone now in place of a new one. To help someone else be someone.
That someone, of course is Kerry. That goal is just as important to me now because I love him. But I love you too, in a very special way. Anyway what I want you to do for me is to be someone for me. You have everything that I don't. Everything it takes to be just what you want to be. Don't settle for anything less, as I will have to. Take pride in what you do. Take pride in Diane. I realize now that she must be the best thing for you. She's someone you want to please and you will. Take care of yourself, Lyle, I don't know where I'll be after this year, wherever Kerry is. But keep in touch as best as you can and always remember, I love you. Barbara "Nerd" '74'

FTA

FTA is dedicated to the principles of learning and helping others learn. The club performs services in elementary schools in order to gain teaching experience and learn new teaching techniques by meeting with teachers. The club has sponsored sucker sales, hot chocolate and doughnut sales and concessions in order to raise funds for their activities.

Chess Club

The chess club, in the short time that it has been here, has prospered exceedingly, and student interest has grown immensely. The students got together and held tournaments between themselves and other schools and improved their chess skills and strategy. The complexity associated with the game of chess improves and disciplines the mind.

V.S.A.

The Viking Spirit Association, headed by Tino Omo, is one of the largest clubs on campus. Created to promote spirit, V.S.A. contributed to the homecoming activities by "Gift-Wrapping" the school on the eve of homecoming. Other various activities helped make this year one of the best yet!

Key Club

Besides many car washes and other fund raising activities, the Key Club has been working through and with its affiliated club, Kiwanis, to help out the community and school. The Key Club this year found out about handicapped facilities in all public buildings and went door-to-door handing out pamphlets for strike day. Key Club not only helps the community but builds leadership and initiative in its members.

Interact

The Interact Club helps the student body become a closer knit organization. Through Interact, school and community relations are secured and a stronger understanding is established between them. Interact raises money for our foreign exchange students, the orphanage in Laos and the American Cancer Society. In cleaning up the beaches, Interact does its bit for ecology.

Orchestra

The many refined students in orchestra brought us their talent this year through the concert at Christmas time, the PTA concert at open house, the combined Junior High and High School Orchestra programs, the three in one concert in February (Orchestra, Band, and Choir), and the beautiful Spring concert.

One more time.

German Club

The German Club has involved themselves in many fund raising activities this year. Under the supervision of Miss Dahl, they have participated in car washes, candy sales, basketball concessions, and also attended the German Festival at Cal Lutheran College. The Club is working toward their trip to Magic Mountain scheduled for March 16.

The Spanish Club has been quite active during the year. Among its many successful activities, the club sponsored the International Annual Foreign Language Club's Banquet in December. It was an enjoyable evening of fun for all the Foreign Language club members.

Other projects led to their goal for a scholarship, to be awarded to a student in any Spanish class who does exceptionally good work and shows great progress in learning the language. The scholarship is to help pay the student's way for a summer's vacation in Mexico with La Juventude, Oxnard's sister city.

Viking Shield

When we're good, we're very very good, but . . .

The Viking Shield is a class that not only has fun, but also keeps the students informed on all the latest campus happenings. Once a month the Shield puts out captivating newspapers. This year, the paper has grown to 8 pages, improved on writing and has had some very controversial issues in it. The Shield has been a successful class this year.

Goody!

Don't they look fascinated?!

AFS

This year we have had bake sales, wrestling and baseball concessions, returnable bottle drives, progressive dinner, candy sales, Valentine sales, and trick-or-treat for money. We also invited foreign exchange students from other schools to stay with a family for the weekend and attend classes and A. F. S. meeting on the Monday. We are having a Talent show and plan to have an aluminum can drive, Bike-a-thon and Bon Voyage Dinner at the Lobster Trap.

Looking at pictures of foreign lands.

VOYAGE 1973-74

It took pictures . . .

Hard work and patience . . .

This voyage was brought to you by: Vickie, Cel, Trudy, Melanie, Teri, Kathy, Joey, Cheryl, Rene, Maria, John, Ernie, David, Cindy, Carol, Bob, Dottie, Howard, Sue, Mike.

This year's book got off to a slow start, but we were soon involved to the point of no return. We lost time when some of our editors left us at semester. Thanks to Trudy Cook, Melanie Burr, Howard Cowden, Vickie Ruiz and Celia Davis, who took over the staffs, we made our deadline with only minor injuries. Thanks to the whole staff we feel this yearbook is a success and we hope you enjoy reading it as much as we enjoyed making it.

FBLA

The Future Business Leaders of America is one of the most successful clubs on campus. Through this club, the students learn confidence in themselves and their work, develop character, and establish a better sense of responsibility. FBLA particpates in academic contests of Southern California. FBLA also supplies the roses given to the Queen and her court at Homecoming along with many other helpful duties. All Members strive to develop the qualities necessary for becoming business leaders.

FBLA teaches Patty selling techniques.

Administration

It takes great courage and a whole lot of confidence to captain a crew of twenty six hundred in times of conflicting ideas and great responsibility.

Mr. Siedler has these qualities although few understand his vast duties. Those of us who do, appreciate his bluntness and his concern for us, the students.

The criticism is great and the praise rare, but we thank you, Mr. Siedler, for taking time to offer to us your wisdom.

"I'm sorry... but you're expelled!"
"Oh goody!" One of Lyles' favorite expressions

As senior officers of the crew these individuals also carry great responsibility.

Their actions may not always have unanimous acceptance, however, they do their jobs regardless of the pitfalls that their offices entail.

Though not often applauded for their labors, looking back we can appreciate the motives behind their actions.

Don't call us, we'll call you

Have you ever tried to listen to hundreds of complaints, problems and requests each week and still retain a kind and friendly smile? Some people make this their living. They are called counselors.

Although sometimes "mutinied" against several dissatisfied crew members, most of us realize that without their guidelines our ship would have floundered long ago at the beginning of our voyage.

Mrs. Pestana and Mrs. Pierce are our library assistants.

Shhh!

We often take the library, its straight shelves, neat tables, and its quiet for granted.

Worse than that, we do not fully appreciate the library aids' help. They always see that the books are in the right place, which sure comes in handy for a term paper.

For sure!

The Ladies Who Come Early and Stay Late

Dear Lyle, (Snoopy, Lion)

We already have so many memories, like: For sure, paranoid, why? because, Angels, gremlins, "Oh, nothing", cracking your knuckles, Spring Formal, Junior-Senior Prom, all those pictures, baseball games, basketball games, the Lion Sleeps Tonight, Snoopy, the Easter Beagle, Band on the Run, the drama plays, "Sim Sweet", all those notes, Shakespeare, sharing a Shakespeare book, Mr. Linquist, "Where are we having dinner at? McDonalds" wringing out carpeting, and soon to come Grad Nite at Disneyland.

Well my senior year is coming to a close. You've given my senior year many happy memories, ones that I'll remember when I'm old and gray. I hope your senior year will be as wonderful as mine was. I know that our relationship is something very special, and I hope you'll never forget it, for I never will. I suppose what I'm trying to say is that you're someone very special to me and I love you.

Love,

Diane

Lyle,
You dip! Well, I had a great time having you ~~the~~ in my classes. Remember (Mrs. Knutson). Even though we do argue alot, I consider you a good friend of mine. You lucky, kid! Have a fun summer and any time for tennis. I'll whip your tail.
your friend,
Kirk Seifert

Dear, fear of arging annuals.
I remember the last time I signed yours.
It was in Geometry - I've known you for a long time & hope to know you for a long time! Keep in touch!
Can still a long time from IPS because that was memories me back

Love!

Lyle,
I'm enjoying having
you in Ellen.
Best wishes in the future,
J. Kellogg
